

Trauma, Attachment & Behaviour in Education

A Half Day Training Course

Tuesday 3rd Oct 2017, Glasgow

with Dr Karen Treisman

Children who have experienced trauma and disrupted attachments can present challenging behaviour which can be tricky to teach and to make sense of. This course will provide you with a greater understanding of the principles of attachment and trauma theories and an understanding as to why children and young people might be behaving in the way they are. The course will also provide you with practical “How To” strategies for working with children and parents, so you can make the education setting an easier place for children to learn in, more trauma-informed, and enhance academic success.

COURSE TUTOR

Karen is a Highly Specialist Clinical Psychologist, author, and enthusiastic and engaging trainer. She has worked in the NHS and children’s services for several years and also cross-culturally in both Africa and Asia with groups ranging from former child soldiers to survivors of the Rwandan Genocide. Karen has extensive experience in the areas of trauma, parenting, and attachment, and works clinically using a range of therapeutic approaches with families, systems, and children in or on the edge of care, unaccompanied asylum-seeking young people, and adopted children. She regularly presents at local, national, and international trauma, parenting, and attachment conferences.

Feedback from Previous Delegates

“Karen was fabulous, lots of practical strategies I can use with the children I work with”

“Excellent knowledge update and ideas provided”

“Karen is an inspiring, articulate, and passionate speaker”

Trauma, Attachment & Behaviour in Education

Tuesday 3rd Oct 2017, Glasgow

AIMS AND OBJECTIVES OF THE COURSE:

- Develop further knowledge and understanding about the impact of early trauma on children's overall development.
- Consider the role school plays in the lives of these children.
- Consider the benefits of being a trauma and attachment sensitive and aware school.
- Learn a range of effective interventions and practices which support these children in a classroom and school context.

The course will be taught through a lively mix of presentation, group discussions, experiential hands-on learning, and multimedia methods. Case studies and live examples will be interwoven throughout. Handouts and additional learning resources will be provided.
