

Settling Troubled Pupils to Learn

A Half Day Training Course with International Expert, Louise Bomber

Wednesday 12th October 2016, Glasgow

This half day course is suitable for a wide range of professionals from Education, Social Care and Health settings; who are interested in understanding how to settle a troubled pupil to learn within the education context.

Course Tutor: Louise Bomber - is an internationally renowned expert in the field of education and attachment; she is a qualified teacher and therapist, trainer and writer. Louise is the author of 'Inside I'm Hurting', 'What About Me', 'Teachers & Attachment' and 'Settling Troubled Pupils to Learn: Why Relationships matter in School', in collaboration with Dan Hughes. She has worked in a range of organisations including schools, with individual pupils, classes, whole school settings, teachers and support staff across both the primary and secondary schools as well as working with social services and health. Louise has also worked with street children in Bolivia. Her curiosity, passion, experiences and trainings have enabled her to get alongside troubled pupils in schools in creative ways, enabling them to make the most of all that education has to offer.

About the Course:

The course will consist of a morning reflecting together on behaviour as communication and how relational experiences can affect that communication. Louise will bring a wealth of experience, expertise and insight into this specialist area after journeying with many hurting children over the years as both a therapist and specialist Attachment Lead Teacher.

Ways of being, relating and doing will be considered and provide you with additional tools and strategies to use in your direct work with children and young people.
